-The latest case of a ministerial backdiding is that of Rev. Serene Howe, a Massachusetts legislator and Baptist min-lster. Serene was afflicted with the usual weakness of the cloth, and his victims are numbered by the dozen. He resigned his seat in the Legislature, and left hastily to avoid tar and feathers and a ride on a single rail. He has gone South as a mission-ary to the freedmen.

by the side of his father and mother, in Georgetown, Beaver county, on Thursday evening. The scene was most ead and solemn. The sun had sank to rest, and the moon and stars were the only lights that guided the footsteps of those bearing the remains to the place of sepulchre. Little did the father and mother, when living, think such would be the fate of their son.
